Note(s):

Black or African American, Hispanic or Latino, and American Indian or Alaska Native are underrepresented minority groups, shown in the striped areas. Hispanic or Latino may be any race; race categories exclude those of Hispanic or Latino origin. In 1995, respondents could not classify themselves in more than one racial or ethnic category, and Asian included Native Hawaiian and Other Pacific Islander. Data are not available for Native Hawaiians or Other Pacific Islanders or more than one race for 1995. Data for American Indian or Alaska Native are suppressed for some years for reasons of confidentiality and/or reliability. Workers with a bachelor's degree or higher in middle-skill occupations are excluded from the analysis because the data source does not allow for analysis of these workers.
